Essay Scoring Rubric: All essays are scored on content, organization, relevance, and grammar. An exemplary essay follows logical reading order and includes an introduction, conclusion, topic, and supporting details. Transitions between paragraphs are logical and each paragraph clearly relates to the main topic. An exemplary essay is also thoughtful, creative and includes sufficient details and examples to support the central idea/overall theme. Finally, an exemplary essay is error-free, meets the required word count and uses appropriate writing style and vocabulary.
